

FOR AUTHORS

The journal Islamology accepts scholarly papers, translations and commentaries of texts of cultural or historical significance, essays, reports on academic conferences, congresses and workshops, book synopses, reviews and other Russian or English-language texts concerning the Islamic Studies.

A paper may not exceed 1 signature long (40 000 characters including white spaces). A synopsis or review may not exceed ½ signature long. Each paper is subject to a double blind peer review. Texts published previously are not accepted.

Please email your submissions to paper@islamology.in

Fill in the 'Subject' field of your email as follows: 'Paper' <your surname with initials> <paper title>.

The paper file must be in Microsoft Word (.docx) format.

Paper pages should be enumerated continuously, including the reference list, tables, captions and comments to graphic material (maps, tables, pictures, photos). Use font face Times New Roman, font size 14, line spacing 150%, and the default indentations.

In the beginning of the article specify the author's first, second and last names, the academic title and rank, employment and position, email address and phone number(s).

Append a short abstract and a keyword list written in your article's language. After the review process, in case the article is accepted, the author should submit an extensive (300-350 words) abstract in the second language.

REFERENCE AND CITATION FORMAT

Make the references directly in the text. Put them in the square brackets as follows: [<author's last name (or in case of a collective work, the beginning of the work's title with dots)>, <publication year>, <page number(s) if necessary>]. For example: [Ivanov, 2002, p. 15]. If referring to multiple works list authors' names alphabetically separated by semicolon, e. g.: [Antonov, 1979, p. 234-235; Volkova, 1989, p. 14]. Works of the same author should be listed chronologically, e. g.: [Markov, 1976; Markov, 1981]. Add initials in case of namesake authors. Two or more works of the same author published in the same year should be enumerated, e. g.: [Ivanov, 2001(1); Ivanov, 2001(2)].

The reference list is to be placed after the article under the title «REFERENCE LIST». The cited works should be listed alphabetically, Russian (Cyrillic) script first, Latin and others scripts next.

If using non-standard font(s) email the font files appended to your paper. Keep in mind that this complicates our work, so please try to keep within the standard fonts as much as possible.

Footnotes should appear on the same page with the referenced text and follow continuous numeration. References in the footnotes should have the same format as in the main text and be expanded in the general reference list as well.

Please be aware that the authors are the primary responsible parties for the authenticity of citations, veracity of facts and statistical data, accuracy of the names and disclosure of classified information.
